

NEWSLETTER

No.16, Pula, February 2018

CENTRE FOR CULTURAL AND HISTORICAL RESEARCH OF SOCIALISM

CONFERENCES

Ego-Documents in the Soviet Sphere on the Holocaust: Revealing Personal Voices - Jerusalem: 3-7 June 2018

The workshop will cover the countries of the former Soviet Union, including areas that were occupied by German and Romanian forces in WWII. The historical themes might include, but are not limited to, the following topics: surviving under the occupation, ghettoization, Jewish POWs and Soviet Jews in death camps...\(Read more\)

Application deadline: 12 March 2018

Wages in the USSR, Russia, Central and Eastern Europe since 1950s – Moscow: 27-28 April 2018

The main themes of the symposium are: 1. Evolution of average wages and their modalities of dispersion since the 1950s / 60s including post-socialist period 2. Analysis of wage differentiation in the pay-scale and of relations between skills and wages. 3. Reflection about the wage strategy of socialist... \(Read more\)

Application deadline: 15 March 2018.

Rescue of Jews during the Holocaust in European Memory – Berlin: 27-29 June 2018

The topic is not only of historical importance, but also of high relevance in the area of civic education. At the same time however, the Righteous can also be easily misused for political purposes. The emergence of the Holocaust as a common negative European point of reference was connected to the acknowledgement of the fact that not only the Germans but also other societies were implicated in different manner in the genocide. \(Read more\)

Application deadline: 18 March 2018.

Regimes and Societies in Conflict: Eastern Europe and Russia since 1956 – Uppsala: 13-15 September 2018

Over the last 60 years Eastern Europe and Russia have been the scene of immense political, social and cultural upheaval. This conference provides the opportunity to reflect on the changes in the region that have led from Stalinist dictatorships to the very varied polities of contemporary Eastern Europe and Russia.\(Read more\)

Application deadline: 31 March 2018.

Technological Innovation and the Spread of Globalization in the Cold War – Vienna: 12-13 October 2018

Technological development and the globalization of Cold War ideologies: How did the influx of new technologies (aviation, nuclear energy and computation technologies) influence and shape ideologies, geopolitical strategies and policies followed by the key actors? Did the threat of mutual nuclear annihilation or increased air travel since... \(Read more\)

Application deadline: 15 April 2018.

Interrogating the Trente Glorieuses. Models of Statehood in Postwar Europe – Rome: 12-14 December 2018

Prominent interpretations characterize the thirty years after the end of World War II as the trenteglorieuses, the glorious three decades in which a strong state secured widespread prosperity, defused social conflicts, and stabilized democratic political systems. This perspective on twentieth century political and economic development... \(Read more\)

Application deadline: 15 April 2018

An era of value change: The Seventies in Europe – London: 14-16 March 2019

In the historiography of many European countries, the 1970s are seen as a caesura. They have been claimed as a period of swift cultural transformation and structural change, as the turning point from post war society to a world “after the boom” characterised by the crisis of high industrial society. This was the time when the post-war emphasis on reconstruction and economic growth faded, and our current world began to take shape. \(Read more\)

Application deadline: 15 April 2018.

Commodification of History: The Past as Source of Entertainment and Commerce - Prague: 15-16 September 2018

The question how exactly history has been used in commercial settings, how the past is being transformed into history with a special commercial interest has so far been under researched. The workshop will pick up on this and tackle questions of commodification in an interdisciplinary approach and will aim at a more nuanced... \(Read more\)

Application deadline: 15 April 2018

Socialist Cultural Diplomacy of the XXth century: institutes, actors, discourses – Moscow: 9-10 October 2018

In order to discuss the multidimensionality of cultural diplomacy and emphasize its role as a means of transnational communication in terms of oscillating political and ideological confrontations, the conference intends to approach it from several angles: - Institutional (the channels and institutions of production, preservation and export... \(Read more\))

Application deadline: 30 April 2018.

Who is an Activist? Biographical and Transformative Effects of Protest - Zagreb: 14 June 2018

Much of the research on social movement activism in the political arena has explored the impact of collective action in producing structural change. Much less attention has been paid to the impact of movement participation on individuals and groups. Addressing movement activism through a biographical lens can shed light on...\(Read more\)

Application deadline: 30 April 2018

PUBLICATIONS

Business History Review 91 (2018), 4

The pioneering journal in its field, Business History Review, began publication in 1926 as the Bulletin of the Business Historical Society. BHR seeks to publish articles based on rigorous primary research that address major topics of debate, offer comparative perspectives, and broaden consideration of the subject. We are interested in the history of entrepreneurs, firms... \(Read More\)

Revolutionary Russia 30 (2017), 2

Revolutionary Russia is the only English-language journal to concentrate on the revolutionary period of Russian history, from c.1880-c.1932. As the journal of the Study Group on the Russian Revolution (founded in 1975), it is interdisciplinary and international in approach, publishing original research, documentary sources, book reviews and review articles... \(Read more\)

Journal of Contemporary European Studies 25 (2017), 4

Special issue guest edited by Gillian Jein, Laura Rorato and Anna Saunders The mainstream imagination of the European city is commonly based around a cultural topography of the 'centre': the urban 'core' in which power, history and collective social life is performed. These identities are most readily articulated through the stereotypical itineraries of the tourist... \(Read More\)

The Russian Review 77 (2018), 1

Experts agree that for the last half-dozen years The Russian Review has reigned as a premier journal in Slavic Studies. Its prescient receptivity to cultural studies, its admirable emphasis on intellectual and scholarly quality over 'partiinost' and its unusually rigorous adherence to publication schedules have made The Russian Review a mode...\(Read More\)

The International Journal of the History of Sport 34 (2017), 9 - Special issue: The History and Social Role of Sport in Socialist Yugoslavia

Now in its 30th year, The International Journal of the History of Sport (IJHS) is the world's leading sport history academic periodical with its fully-refereed global coverage of the subject. As well as regular issues, the IJHS also offers regionally-focused issues... \(Read More\)

Women's Studies: Futures of Feminist Science Studies, Special Issue

Women's Studies: an interdisciplinary journal invites submissions that work at the intersections of science studies, feminism, and cultural studies. We are especially interested in work that explores the possibilities that emerge from feminist science studies, both as a critique science... \(Read More\)

Application deadline: 20 March 2018

Aparatus - Fiction in Central and Eastern European Film Theory and Practice

There is a rich theory of fiction in Central and Eastern European thought ranging from the concept's relation to epistemology (Hans Vaihinger) and literature (Käte Hamburger) to the more recent developments in narratology (Monika Fludernik), fictional...\(Read More\)

Application deadline: 30 March 2018

Historijski zbornik, 62 (2017), 2

"Historijski zbornik" časopis je Društva za hrvatsku povjesnicu, nekada Povijesnoga društva Hrvatske, odnosno Saveza povijesnih društava Hrvatske. To je najstarije strukovno historičarsko društvo u Republici Hrvatskoj, koje kontinuirano djeluje od 1947. godine. "Historijski zbornik" izlazi neprekidno od 1948. godine kada je objavljen prvi... \(Read more\)

Istraživanja, 28 (2017)

Taking into consideration contemporary and current needs and ACADEMIC demands for the improvement and modernization of historiography in the domain of underresearched topics, social processes and events in the region of Central and South East Europe and the Mediterranean, the Editorial Board of the journal Istraživanja has \(Read more\)

POSITIONS, GRANTS AND STIPENDS

13 PhD positions "Participatory Memory Practices. Concepts, strategies, and media infrastructures..." - multiple universities

The European Training Network "Participatory Memory Practices. Concepts, strategies, and media infrastructures for envisioning socially inclusive potential futures of European Societies through culture" (POEM) invites applications for 13 PhD fellowships... \(Read More\)

Application deadline: 15 March 2018

Postdoc in European Research (1-2 positions)– Gothenburg

The Centre for European Research at the University of Gothenburg (CERGU) is a multidisciplinary centre supported by the Faculty of Arts, the Faculty of Social Sciences and the School of Business, Economics and Law. The position consists of a unique double affiliation with the multidisciplinary centre combined with employment and office located... \(Read More\)

Application deadline: 25 March 2018.

Research Associate in International Economic History – Glasgow

The successful candidate will be part of the ERC-funded project The Making of a Lopsided Union: Economic Integration in the European Economic Community, 1957-1992 (EURECON) led by Dr Emmanuel Mourlon-Druol. Specifically, the job requires expert knowledge in the area of post-war international/European economic history. \(Read More\)

Application deadline: 9 April 2018.

Interdisciplinary Joint Master's Programme in South-Eastern European Studies - Do you want to understand the interrelationship between law, politics, economics and culture of South-Eastern Europe? Students are not only provided with specialised and professional education and training, but special attention is paid to mobility which contributes to broaden ones horizon and also deepens intercultural understanding.. \(Read More\)

Application deadline: 15 April/1 June 2018.