CONFERENCES

Destruction/Re-Construction – Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Cultural Heritage in Conflict - Beirut: 30 September - 2 October 2019

An international and interdisciplinary conference held in Beirut in autumn 2019 aims at discussing the cycle of the creation and decay of architectural heritage, thereby investigating the historical, philosophical, and social implications of destruction and (re-)construction (or the deliberate decision to leave a building in its ruined state)... (Re)thinking Socialism. Knowledge, memory and oblivion of the socialist past – Sofia: 7-9 November 2019

The goal of the international interdisciplinary conference is to discuss various aspects of socialism/communism and its impact on the present. The emphasis is on (re)thinking – it is our aim to thematize the state of research on socialism, to illuminate new fields and to add new details to the knowledge of the period. \(Read more\)

East European Dissent between Agenda and Legacy – Brussels: 3-4 October 2019

Interested primarily in the cultural and political aspects of this process, this conference aims to explore the following questions in particular: how have cultural products related to dissent and repression been employed to depict social relations and legitimize political regimes before and after 1989? How have political-ideological, ethnic or gender-related factors impacted what has been included in and excluded from the legacy of dissent? \(Read more\)
